

WALLER BENNETT OFFERS $20,000

If Presbyterians Can Find Five Others To Aggregate Similar Sum For New Church

The congregation at the First Presbyterian church had the thrill of their lives Sunday night.

They have been struggling hard to raise the money to build a new church but congregational meetings and mid-week conference, personal solicitation and pulpit appeals all combined secured only $34,000 toward the building of the church that will cost upwards of $70,000.

The exceptional bid and generous offer of the Selden-Breck Company of St. Louis had to be declined and the congregation in this emergency, has been sorrowfully considering the question of remodeling the old church with the funds raised.

Sunday night Mr. Waller Bennett, who had already contributed generously to the building fund started the congregation by a speech that will long be remembered and the offer of $20,000 toward building the new church, if five other persons will contribute the sum of $20,000 in cash by Wednesday noon of this week. If his $20,000 now in the bank, is not covered by that time, his offer will be withdrawn.

Mr. Bennett's generous proposition has stirred up the church tremendously and all are predicting that Mr. Bennett's "come on boys," will get a response from others who will strike hands with him to carry this splendid enterprise to completion.

PATTIE A. CLAY INFIRMARY
During the month of February 25 patients were treated in the infirmary. Seven of these were surgical cases and 18 were medical cases.

Although deaths are frequently reported and anxious friends keep the telephone busy there has been but one death this year. That of Mr. Robert Tevis, who was brought to the infirmary with double pneumonia on Feb. 25. A special nurse was furnished by his friends and every attention possible given him, but he passed away on March 2.

J. H., the attractive little son of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. H. Barnett, was admitted February 22nd, very ill with pneumonia. He is now convalescent and delighted with his little brother born on March 9.

Mrs. Barnett and her two children occupy the Smead room.

Mrs. J. H. Pearson and son, who occupy the Kellogg room will leave for home in a few days.

Mr. Wm. Green, of near Winchester who met with a serious accident at a railroad crossing, is able to be around on crutches.

Mrs. John Denny is convalescing from a major operation.

Mr. Tony Kunk is up again after a serious attack of flu.

Mr. Irvine Shifflett is ill with flu.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brandenburg left for the home of her daughter, Mrs. Cain, of Waco, on the 4th.

There is now a waiting list of patients to come in as soon as rooms are vacated. A staff of physicians and surgeons have been provided to treat ex-service men and the Pattie A. Clay Infirmary has been designated by the United States Public Health Service as one of the hospitals where they may be treated.

The members of the hospital board wish to thank the tobacco buyers of the Madison warehouse for their generous donation of $37.50.

Saturday April 3rd is the day of the annual Easter Bazaar. The proceeds will go to install a new furnace in the hospital—will ever one add their help. Those who have not been approached by one of the chairman of the many committees, can volunteer their help in any capacity they prefer.

Remember to come and bring your friends for luncheon.

Of the entire 36,000,000 population of the southern states, only 13,000,000 are members of any church, protestant or catholic, according to the statement of the Rev. W. H. Hopper, of Louisville, campaign manager of the Presbyterian Progressive Program in this synod. This leaves 23,000,000 without any church connection.

EIGHT COUPLES SUE FOR DIVORCE

Release From Marital Ties Sought By Sixteen Through Madison Circuit Court

So far, eight couples who have found marital bliss not all that is claimed for it in song and story, have filed papers in the office of Circuit Clerk James W. Wagers, here, seeking dissolution of the bonds that bind, too tightly, it seems.

Through Attorneys Chenault & Chenault, Mat Willis, Jr., asks a divorce from Rose M. Willis, his wife, naming statutory charges. He says they were married on March 17, 1911, and that she left him October 19, 1919. They have four children from two to eight years of age, of which he asks the custody.

In the divorce suit of Laura Tucker against Harry P. Tucker, in which Attorney W. B. Walden, of Berea, represents the plaintiff, Attorney C. C. Wallace, of this city, was appointed corresponding attorney. He filed his report in the office of the Circuit Clerk, to the effect that he is unable to locate the defendant and therefore unable to offer a defense to the action. The petition recites that they were married in Ohio March, 1906. She is now in this county. They lived together in Lexington until June 15, 1914, when he abandoned her and their two children, she claims.

Attorney H. C. Rice brought suit on behalf of Lillian Gilbert, against William Gilbert, asking a divorce on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. She claims that he treated her so that he made "life a burden to her." They were married in Detroit in 1917, and lived together seven or eight years. The woman asserts that Gilbert threatened to kill her if she did not leave him.

Attorney C. C. Wallace brought suit on behalf of Elsie Fritz against Virgil Fritz, in which divorce is asked on the grounds of abandonment. They were married March 1, 1910, and separated February, 1913.

Mr. Wallace also brought suit for Herbert Stocker against Minnie Stocker, asking divorce on a statutory charge. They were married September 17, 1912.

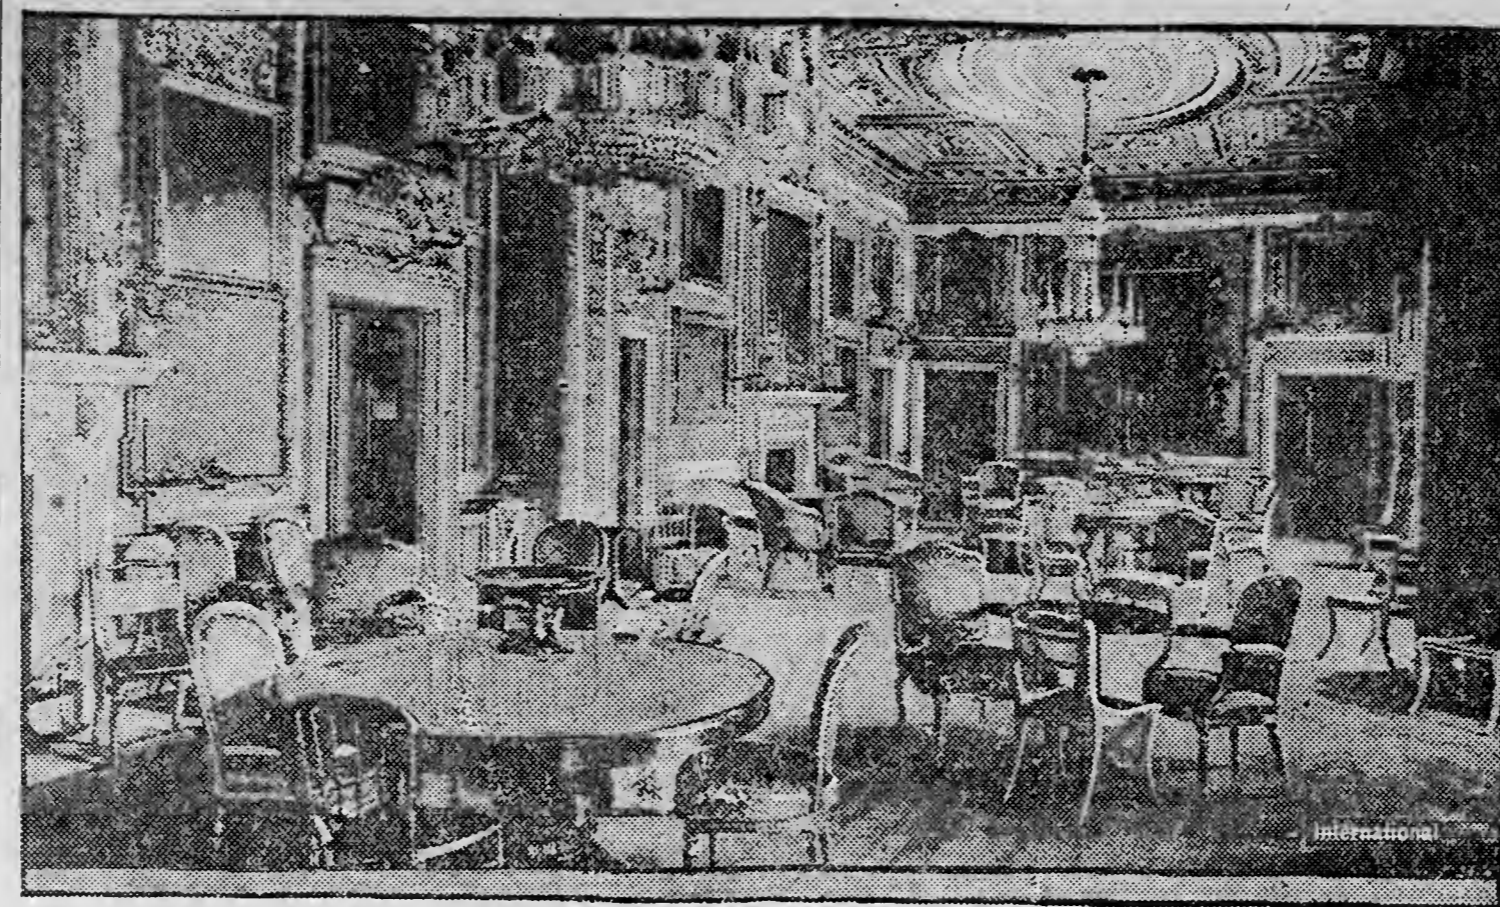

W. C. Jones, a traveling salesman, who claims Madison as his home, filed suit for divorce through Attorney H. C. Rice, against his wife, Rubie Jones, for divorce. He alleges that she was untrue to her marriage vows in Berea at a hotel. They were married in Missouri, February 18, 1914.

Attorneys Chenault and Chenault bring suit on behalf of E. F. Mixon for divorce from his wife Rosa Mixon. Grounds are that they have separated and lived apart for a period of five years or more. She is now in Durham, N. C. They were married in November, 1896, and lived together until May, 1913.

It will be recalled that Thompson had a narrow escape from whisky poisoning given him by a stranger on the Red House pike while coming to Richmond a short time before he was shot on the streets of Lexington, by Welch. A witness is being sought in Madison county who is understood to have been Thompson advancing toward Welch with a knife in his hand.

HUN SPARTACANS ARE BEING SHOT DOWN

(By Associated Press)

Berlin, notwithstanding the return of the Ebert government to control there, still presents the aspect of an armed camp with the food supply short. There was sanguinary fighting at intervals in the suburbs. In the Moabit industrial district Sunday night, 20 Spartacans were killed and 24 others summarily executed. In the Ruser industrial region, immediately adjoining the Allied zone of occupation, there is veritable civil war with the Communists army, and the government troops drawn up in opposing battle lines. Leipzig has quieted down but there is increasing unrest in Northern Germany. Southern and Eastern Germany are reported fairly quiet.

HIGH COURT ACTS ON GARRARD MURDER CASE

The Court of Appeals at Frankfort Friday decided that neither the administrator of the husband or the wife could sue the administrator of either for damages for wrongful or negligent death caused by either spouse. This is the first time that the Court of Appeals has been called upon to decide such a case.

T. E. Deshon, a resident of Garrard county, killed his wife, Lillie Conn Deshon, August 4, 1918, and he died two days later. Suit was filed by the administrator of Mrs. Deshon's estate against the administrator of Deshon's estate to recover from his estate damages for her wrongful death. The question for the court to decide therefore was whether the administrator of the wife may maintain an action for damages against the estate of the husband who wrongfully caused her death.

The court says that the law provides that in the absence of children the husband is the beneficiary of the wife for damages recovered for the wrongful death of the wife. In this case, the court says that because of the peculiar law of this state the defendant would really be the plaintiff and therefore a cause of action in this kind of a case cannot be maintained.

MRS. CUNLIFFE GETS DIAMOND RING

(By Associated Press)

A jury in Madison Quarterly court Monday morning gave possession of a diamond ring to Mrs. Alice Cunliffe, widow of the well known barber, Jim Cunliffe who died at his home on Estill avenue a short time ago. The ring was in possession of Mrs. Bessie Cunliffe, wife of Preston Cunliffe, a brother of the deceased. She claimed that the dead man had bought the ring for $20 from a hobo, on behalf of his brother, Preston, who wanted it as the latter did not have the money at the time. She claimed to have repaid Jim Cunliffe $5 on the purchase price before his death. The widow testified that on his deathbed, her husband told her to go and get the ring and the jury awarded it to her. The ring is a diamond cluster and is said to have been valued at $75 or $100.

SHERIFFS NOTIFIED TO GET UNTAGGED DOGS

(By Associated Press)

Commissioner of Agriculture W. C. Hanna is preparing to see to it that the dog law is vigorously enforced by the sheriffs of the state now that the legislature has refused to change the law as it applies to canines. He is writing out to sheriffs to get busy and see that every dog wears a license tag.

So far the list of dogs licensed in Madison county is considerably under last year's figures. Reports come in from different sections of the county of dogs running at large without tags. Sheriff Whitlock and deputies have impounded a considerable number of animals and every dog owner who does not secure a license stands in danger of a heavy fine and losing his animal.

The letter which Commissioner Hanna is sending out to sheriffs urging rigid enforcement of the law, reads as follows:

Frankfort, March 19.
Dear Mr. Sheriff—
I desire to call your attention to the duties imposed upon you in the carrying out of the Day law, which law has been sustained by the present Legislature, and is in full force and effect upon our statute books.

Every dog should be licensed, and when the owner fails to do so, he is a violator of the law and subject to the penalty thereunder. Under the law it becomes your duty to seize and impound unlicensed dogs, or dogs running at large that are a menace to the live stock industry.

If you could give publicity to the fact that all unlicensed dogs are subject to being killed upon sight, this would give the owners time to procure the license to protect their dog.

If they do not license their dogs, indictments will certainly be brought against them for violation of the law, and you are called upon to do your duty as prescribed by the law.

Looking to you to do your duty as prescribed by the law with judgement and accuracy, I am

Yours very truly,
W. C. HANNA,
Commissioner of Agriculture.

DAVISON BACK FROM DELCO CONVENTION

Farm Electricity Makers Show Employees and Agents Big Time At Dayton

Mr. Fred M. Davison of the Madison Electric and Plumbing Company local Delco-Light dealer, returned this week from the fourth annual Delco-Light convention which he attended in Dayton, Ohio, on March 18th to 20th.

He came back, displaying boundless enthusiasm over the trip and described fluently the many unique and interesting features which were offered at this convention of the makers and salesmen of Delco-Light, the well-known farm electric plant.

Some of the more striking features, says Mr. Davison were: first the opening session on Thursday morning when talks were made by R. H. Grant, General Manager, and other officers of the Company. These talks, he stated, had to do largely with the general proposition of the spread and development of electrical equipment for the rural communities and many valuable new electrical products were announced.

On Thursday afternoon, the whole convention body of some 1500 members were taken on a trip through the great Delco-Light factory, largest of its kind in the world and covering more than a million square feet of floor space. On Thursday night feature was a comedy with music, produced and presented exclusively for the Delco-Light organization.

Friday's program dealt with intimate service and financial problems and included, also, a striking parade of factory employees, representing each department. The keenest interest and enthusiasm were displayed on every hand, declares Mr. Davison, clear up to the culminating feature, the annual banquet for the entire convention body, on Saturday night. Prominent speakers, delivered stirring talks, and at the conclusion, motion pictures were shown of many of the important features of the three-day convention.

Mr. Davison declares that in his opinion electricity is one of the most important forces offered the farmer today and that that opinion was strengthened by what he saw and heard at the tremendous gathering of salesmen of electrical products. Any electrical exposition conducted by about 100 manufacturers of electrical appliances was a valuable feature of the convention, he adds and concludes that when all farmers come to use electricity as they will one day, the result will be a most valuable saving of time and labor and the unquestioned addition of untold comfort and enjoyment, made possible by the enjoyment of the advantages that electricity alone affords.

Mr. W. S. Smathers and Mr. W. D. Walker also attended the convention with Mr. Davison.

SWINEBROAD'S GOOD SALE

Col. G. B. Swinebroad, the Lancaster "sale wizard," made a good sale last week when he disposed of the 400-acre farm of William C. Anderson, on the Perryville and Blue Grass pike in Boyle county at $320 per acre. The buyers were Bradshaw Bros., and Saunders Bros., of Garrard.

LANCASTER PIKE FUND STILL "SHY"

Only $11,000 Yet Subscribed and Madison Must Get Busy To Secure The Highway

About $11,000 has been subscribed by farmers along the Lancaster pike and others who are interested in securing the continuation of the Federal Highway on from the Garrard line at Paint Lick, to Richmond. As this is less than half the required sum of $27,000, which must be raised, it was decided to redouble efforts to increase the fund. Several big farmers along the route, who will be immensely benefited by the building of the highway, are said to have agreed to double their original subscriptions several times over. The men living on the pike or immediately contiguous to it are the ones who will be chiefly benefited by the building of a permanent type government road, but a great many others are interested in putting this big thing over for old Madison and are watching the efforts being put forth with deep concern.

Garrard county is said to be certain to vote her bond issue to take care of her immense mileage of the highway. Boyle county voted her 20 cents special tax by a big majority and it is really up to Madison not to "fall down" on the proposition.

SIMS SAYS THAT BENSON SAID IT

(By Associated Press)

Washington, March 22—Rear Admiral William Benson, then chief of naval operations, was the official who told Rear Admiral Sims "not to let the British pull the wool over your eyes. We would as soon light them as Germans." Sims testified today before the Senate committee's investigation of the Navy's conduct of the war.

Sims said the remark was made just preparatory to his departure for England on the eve of the United States' entry into the war. He added, however, the remark was not made in course of formal instructions, but during a conversation, which was repeated day later and again made six months later in London. Sims said he did not pay particular attention to the remarks, because he believed Benson intensely anti-British. Sims was reluctant to give Benson's name but Chairman Hale insisted.

FLOOD ON THE OHIO

(By Associated Press)

Louisville, Mar. 22—The Ohio river here today is three and eight-tenths feet above the flood crest and about a foot more is expected tonight. The river is above flood from Point Pleasant to its mouth except at Paducah. It is falling, however, as far down as Maysville and on a stand as far down as Fern Bank, below Cincinnati. The most serious conditions, according to reports, are in Cloverport and Evansville, where tributaries are pouring a tremendous volume of water into the main stream. A number of houses are marooned in the low-lands here.

Political Announcements

The Daily Register is authorized to announce the following candidates for office subject to the action of the Democratic party.

For Congress

RALPH GIBBERT, of Shelby County. FRANK RUBY, of Anderson county.

With the death of Senator Bankhead, Senator Beckham becomes the ranking member of the Senate Committee on Postoffice and Post Roads. This is one of the most important committees of the Senate, and should the next elections return the Democratic party to the control of this branch of Congress, Senator Beckham will become its Chairman.

One of the prominent members of the Senate having opposition within his party which is said to be serious is Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama. Senator Underwood, throughout his long career, has been an uncompromising foe of all prohibition legislation. The opposition to him in the Democratic primaries in Alabama this year is based upon that issue although it is a question which is generally considered Senator Underwood's services to his party and to the nation have been of such a character that many persons who disagree entirely with him in his views on the prohibition question are considered as settled in this country, hopeful that he will be renominated and re-elected.

SICK WOMEN

HEAR ME

You Can Be Free from Pain as I Am, if You Do as I Did.

Harrington, Me.—"I suffered with backache, pains through my hips and such a bearing down feeling that I could not stand on my feet. I also had other distressing symptoms. At times I had to give up work. I tried a number of remedies but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did me good. CITY FIREMAN HAS MADE GAIN OF 20 POUNDS

Had Flu and Lost 48 Pounds Before He Started Taking Vola-Tonic

Fireman J. W. Jones, of Company No. 21, Cincinnati Fire Department who lives at 1844 Westwood avenue, Cincinnati, has gained 20 pounds weight since he started taking Vola-Tonic "Builder of Strength."

"I was in a seriously weakened run down condition when I got over influenza last winter and I kept losing weight right along until I lost 48 pounds in all," Fireman Jones said.

"My appetite was almost completely gone and the little food I did eat didn't agree with me and didn't do me any good. Gas formed on my stomach after every meal, and I was troubled with constipation, too. I had headaches nearly all the time."

"I have an excellent appetite since I have been taking Vola-Tonic and everything I eat digests perfectly. As a result, I have gained 20 pounds. The constipation has disappeared and the headaches have left me."

"My wife took Vola-Tonic also after she had influenza, and it made a new woman of her."

"Both of us are satisfied that Vola-Tonic is just what we needed."

Thousands of men and women praise Vola-Tonic just as highly as Fireman Jones does because of the strength and better health they have derived through its use. If you are feeling weak and run down try this medicine that has helped so many others.

You can get Vola-Tonic in Richmond at the Richmond Drug Company.

"You're on a bad way, my friend," announced the doctor to the young Irish lad in the hospital. "Would you like to see the priest?"

"Did you say I have the scarlet fever?" asked the boy.

"You have, and a serious case."

"Then send in a rabbit. Do you think I want to give the fever to a priest?"

Black Cat Jinx Disproved
Has a black cat ever crossed your path?

What a terrible sensation followed it when it did and for weeks every time something went wrong at home there was a business reverse, the poor kitty came in for all the blame.

It was back in the Sixteenth Century, according to a learned historian of Rhode Island, that the superstition of the black cat fable was introduced.

A clergyman was returning from church after Sunday evening service and he carried with him the day's offering of the congregation. A black cat darted in front of him, without warning, and as the story goes, ten steps later he was felled when a heartless hand attacked him. The victim was robbed and the assailant fled. And all of this was attributed to the act of the harmless cat.

History repeats itself in Douglas Fairbanks' current "Big Four" production "When the Clouds Roll By," which will be shown here Thursday and Friday. Doug is not a clergyman and he is not attacked by a thug, but a black cat crosses his path. Does he worry and fret over it? No, he just tightens his muscles and squares himself for a mighty attack on this annoying superstition, and smiles at the original fable.

CARMEN-LIKE ROLE
SUTS MICHELENA
Beatriz Michelen, who has been seen too seldom on the screen of "Joe Martin" production "The Heart of Juanita," is the type of role in "Juanita" that has made her a character. She is a modern "Carmen," without the Spanish heroine's fickleness. And here let me confess that when I was in grand opera, "Carmen" was the one role that appealed to me most forcibly. I had studied the part of Blaz's heroine conscientiously, and would, no doubt, have sung the part, as I had several offers from grand opera impresarios who believed me to be physically and vocally the type; but the lure of the silent stage was too strong. Coming here Tuesday.

MARGUERITE CLARKE LUCKY

Do you believe in luck? Is there a "destiny that shapes our ends," or do things just happen by chance that mean a life-or-death difference to us? Marguerite Clark's new Paramount-Argenta picture, "Luck in Pawn," which is entertaining crowds at the local theatres tonight, doesn't discuss the question in a serious or learned manner, but the old argument suggests itself to the thoughtful spectator who sees anything but a highly amusing comedy behind the story of the aspiring young country girl who wanted to be an artist and had to be content with the lesser destiny of becoming a millionaire's wife just because she happened to encounter the rich man shortly after being told her artistic ambitions were vain.

Pepto-Mangan Creates Rich, Red Blood, Changes Pale Complexions to Bloom of Health

A serious illness, even a cold that is hard to shake off, can reduce the blood to a weak, watery condition which keeps the normal strength and vigor from coming back.

This poor physical condition brings on a helpless, discouraged mental condition which rich, red blood can restore.

Pure blood should be rich in iron which Nature supplies to some extent in food. But often through faulty digestion or improper diet you don't get the iron needed, and your blood, on which your health depends, grows weaker and weaker.

Gude's Pepto-Mangan enriches the blood, increases the red blood cells and supplies the ingredients that bring a quick response in vigor, vitality and fine color.

Physicians recommend Gude's Pepto-Mangan. When you order be sure the word "Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan. Purchased in both liquid and tablet form. For sale by all druggists.

Judge Essex Fineness By Hudson's Standard

The Essex Is Famous For Beauty As Well As Performance

Essex performance proofs naturally overshadow its qualities of quieter appeal.

Its official world's endurance records have the force of proving the incredible.

For prior to Essex it was held that light weight and moderate cost must mean some forefit in smoothness, speed, power and endurance.

But even those whose choice was decided by Essex supreme performance ability are captivated by its notable beauty of design, its luxurious finish and quiet riding ease.

It is not merely that Essex matches large, high-priced cars in comfort. It is not only its speed, its quickness at the getaway and its easy mastery of the hills.

Comfort and Quality Like Costliest Cars

Essex charm lies in the combination of its qualities of beauty and fineness with a flying smoothness of action and a responsiveness that beeds the lightest touch.

Abundant surplus power handles the Essex with ease in any situation. It is this surplus power and strength, beyond any need you will ever have for it, that accounts for Essex smoothness and ease in tasks at which many cars strain with permanent injury to their mechanism.

WOMEN ESPECIALLY APPRECIATE THIS. It stops, starts, turns, picks up, far more quickly than is possible for heavier types. This is why progress is fast and secure, even in the heaviest traffic.

Though style preference must always be a matter of personal taste, a car must offer unusual beauty and distinction to gain the following Essex has among people who are accustomed to fine quality in all things.

Appreciation of Essex fineness is steadily growing. Production cannot keep pace with demand. Order today and be sure of delivery.

Hudson Design and Super-Six Motor Still World Supreme

Every day you see Hudsons, two and three years old, which, both in performance and style, might well be judged of recent production.

That is because Hudson's design never has been guided by caprice. It has never sought to excite attention by dubious extremes.

Advanced ideas you will always find in Hudson Super-Six. This fact created its leadership. But they must earn their right to belong. No mere straining after something new ever won place for a single feature of Hudson design.

On fashionable boulevards and drives you will see more Hudson closed and chauffeur driven cars than of any other make. Yet leadership in style alone was not enough to win such recognition.

The Super-Six Motor Exclusive in Hudson

Hudson's chief advantage has always been in performance. In every way open to proof it has shown its supremacy. It holds the worth-while stock car records for speed, power and acceleration. In its run of 7,000 miles, across the continent and back, in 10 days and 21 hours it proved such endurance as no other car ever has equalled.

These records were made four or five years ago. Yet they still stand. They account for Hudson becoming the largest selling fine car in the world.

That is sufficient reason why no change ever has been made in the principle of the Super-Six motor. No way has been found to improve it.

And you can get its advantages in no other car. It is patented and exclusive in Hudson.

Everywhere Hudson dealers are asking for more cars to meet the demand. But the factory can not supply enough. To get a Hudson this summer we suggest that you place your order immediately.

Come to our Salesrooms on Second Street, where we carry a full line of all models, or one of our salesmen will bring the car to your door for a demonstration.

WHO SAID PROFITEER?

"When farmers get together and pool their products does the consumer suffer or is he benefited?" asks Freeman Tilden, in an article in The Country Gentleman of March 6th.

"It has been asserted that for the average food product the consumer pays at least three times what the producer received," says Mr. Tilden. "Yet as a result of cooperative methods among California walnuts, for which the producer gets one dollar, cost the consumer today only about $1.35."

Cooperation saved both the producer and the consumer of the 1918 Lima bean crop, Mr. Tilden shows. The crop was large and at the start there was little cooperation. The market started to fall and dealers, fearing a loss, refused to buy. The producer was left with an oversupply, and the consumer, finding few beans in the dealers' hands, was forced to pay high prices. But a selling agency was established, a price guaranteed the producer and the boggy of a falling market removed, so that dealers were no longer afraid to buy. This stabilized condition worked both to raise the price received by the producers and lower that charged to the consumers.

"The consumer can bank on one thing, as certain as death or taxes," comments Mr. Tilden. "It is this. That as long as the present haphazard methods of distribution are employed he must pay several profits on the food he consumes. But co-operation by the farmers not only assures uniform quality of products, but reduces the middlemen to the genuine distributor."

ILLINOIS MAN FEELS MANY YEARS YOUNGER

Was in Such Poor Health He Had Almost Decided To Retire From Business When He Began Taking Tanlac.

"I feel thirty years younger since I got hold of Tanlac and if it was necessary I could handle a shovel and turn as much dirt as any of my men," said Charles Stenstrom, the well known concrete and excavating contractor, living at 607 Fishgate street, Peoria, Ill.

"For thirty years I have suffered all the misery that goes with stomach trouble, rheumatism and disordered kidneys, and when I began taking Tanlac I was so bad off I was almost ready to retire from business."

"My stomach was so badly upset that it nearly laid me up altogether and after every meal I took cramping spells that sometimes were so bad I couldn't leave the house for I was afraid I could not get back. I bloated up so with gas that I could not get a long breath. My legs pained almost every minute of the day and when the weather was damp my arms hurt me so much it was agony for me to bend them. My kidneys were so badly out of order that I had pains all through my back and at night I was in such misery that I could hardly sleep at all. Every morning my back was so stiff it was hard for me to get out of bed and during the day I couldn't think of doing my work."

"Things are different now as

CHARLES STENSTROM

Tanlac has made a wonderful change in my condition. Everything I eat agrees with me perfectly. The rheumatism has almost disappeared and the pains and stiffness in my back have all gone. I sleep sound every night and I get up in the mornings feeling fine and ready for breakfast. I have given up all idea of retiring from business, as Tanlac has given me new life and strength and I am enjoying better health than I have for many years."

Tanlac is sold in Richmond by Stockton and Son.

HOW TO GET AND KEEP A CLOVER STAND

Everybody will admit that clover is needed on the farm, on practically every farm in the clover belt. But by no means every farm has clover and there are extremely few farms on which there is as much clover as there should be. Why? Because clover so often fails to make a good stand and to carry well to a crop. Farmers have become discouraged. Putting good money into seed and then loosing the seedling is discouraging. Especially this year when it will cost around $6 an acre for seed alone, farmers will hesitate. What can be done about it? Given good seed and good soil conditions a stand is reasonably sure. Only an unusual season, especially a dry one, will kill a stand under such conditions. United States Department of Agriculture experts declare. Good seed can be bought and good soil conditions can be made, at least to a certain extent.

The need for a good seed bed and for careful seedling has been referred to in the Weekly News Letter. A loose seed bed will dry out. Make it firm. Careless seedling wastes seed and the young plants that do start do not have a chance. Put every seed where it will start and where the tender seedling will find favorable conditions. But more is needed. Clover needs lime more than almost any plant except alfalfa. Roughly speaking, nearly three-quarters of the cultivated land from the Atlantic to Iowa and from Tennessee to Canada, either never had lime enough or lost it in the course of years of cultivation. Therefore, the lime needed must be put on the land.

Exactly what lime does in the plant or soil is still disputed, but it is known that clover must have it, that it will not thrive on land from which it can get no lime. Clover also needs other things. Phosphorus, potash, sulphur, and where these are lacking, they must be given. Clover will not thrive even if the soil is well limed. But there is no one element so generally wanting in the soils of the clover belt, is lime and, therefore, the emphasis is placed on this element. On farms where clover did well 30 years ago, but fails now, the chances are largely in favor of the assumption that lime is needed.

The Pennsylvania experiment station found that where lime requirement of the soil was 1,500 pounds an acre clover would not grow; at 1,000 pounds it grew poorly; but when the lime requirement was less than 500 pounds an acre a good crop was secured. The Ohio station found that lime more than doubled the yield of the clover. The Indiana station found at various substations that lime in addition to manure increased the clover crop in some cases as much as 50 per cent. The addition of acid phosphate still further increased the yields. In Tennessee the station found that on certain soils clover would not grow at all without lime but that with lime it did well. On Wisconsin sandy land the lined plat yielded nearly a ton of hay while on the check plat clover failed. Many more examples could be given.

IN OLD KENTUCKY

In giving peremptory instructions dismissing Thomas Moore and three others accused in the Bardstown whisky removal case, Federal Judge Evans ruled at Louisville that search warrants were necessary to enter homes, warehouses, stores or offices.

Robbers are believed to have set fire to the home of Carl Burchett, at Louisa. Eighty-three hundred dollars which had been secreted in the building was lost, the residence and barns being destroyed.

Under an experimental renting arrangement, the Clinton Commercial Club is operating the plant of the water and light company there, shut down for three weeks because of the deadlock between the city and company as to which should operate it.

At Danville, Mrs. Thornton Conquest, 40, died from measles, which attacked also her husband and six children at the same time. Her body was sent to Liberty for burial.

Richard Biggerstaff, 83, last of the four sons of Dr. O. S. Biggerstaff, pioneer physician of Bath county, died from a stroke of paralysis.

The Rev. H. B. ex, of Middletown, who went to Louisville to attend a meeting of churchmen, lost his pocketbook containing $107 and his railroad ticket.

At Lexington, a verdict for $10,000 was given John Offutt in his suit against Thomas W. Bowles on grounds that defendant had shot him. At Maysville, all bids for building 24 dwellings in the new housing move were rejected as being too high, and will be asked for under a different proposal.

A reward of $1,200 has been offered by the Bank of Woodburn for apprehension of the yeomen who robbed the institution of $8,200 last Tuesday.

At Versailles, Mrs. J. W. Hawkins sustained a fracture of her hip in a fall at her home, and was moved to the hospital.

When alcohol caused the death of Luther Osborn, 39, at his home in Fulton county, he being first victim of the poison in that section.

Measles, mumps and pneumonia concentrated on the family of Clay Wainford, of Boone county, ten members being in bed at the same time. Neighbors did not know of their plight until one died, and had to be prepared for burial by others scarcely able to stand.

Clarence E. Ackley, of Anchorage, has been elected superintendent of schools at Winchester to succeed O. H. Harris, resigned.

At Louisville, two pianos belonging to the Adler Co. were smashed to pieces when, in avoiding a collision with another machine, the colored driver steered a truck into a telephone pole, broke off the pole and turned over the truck.

The burial of Annie Osborn, 6, of Paris, who died of burns sustained when her dress caught from an open fire, took place at North Middletown.

Two freight cars containing 12,000 quarts of whisky, in shipment from Mt. Sterling to Chicago, were parked in front of the police station at Lexington over night so that the trip could be made in daylight for safety.

Something for nothing—it can't be done. Nor do we promise it. The man who responds to such a promise usually gets it the other way—nothing for something. That's expensive—also embarrassing.

Merchants are in business to serve—and must not only make expenses but an honest profit, in order to make a living, for their employes as well as for their own families.

We prefer to promise less and give you more. This invites the patronage of level-headed Americans who buy with their eyes open men and women who understand the economy of quality—folks who want the best and will pay what it is honestly worth. Men and women who have faith in the concern that asks an honest price—including an honest profit—for earnest goods.

UP-TO-DATE INTERVIEWS

WITH CANDIDATES

(From Life)

"Do you believe in Prohibition?" the candidate was asked.

"I believe in the glorious institutions of this country," was the reply. "We have the best government in the world. The Constitution is the greatest document ever penned by the hand of man!"

"Do you approve of the way the Treaty has been handled in Washington?" was the next question.

"This country went to war to save civilization," answered the candidate forcefully. "We were fighting for liberty. That is what America stands for liberty for all! When I think of those thousands of young men who responded to their country's call I am proud that I am an American!"

"Do you favor land grants for returned soldiers?"

"Ah! The returned soldier! The returned soldier has the gratitude of a hundred million loyal Americans. Whenever I see an ex-service man I feel like grabbing his hand and saying 'My boy, your country is proud of you!'"

"Do you believe in the immediate reduction of the income tax?"

"The swollen fortunes of the idle rich are the curse of this land. Every man should work for his living. In this great republic the man who toils with his hands, in the factory or on the farm, is just as honorable as the man with half a dozen 'limousines' and a million dollars! I say that I stand behind it! I hold this truth to be self-evident, that all men are created equal! Lincoln was a poor boy, but he rose to be the greatest statesman this country has produced. Any man who denies that Lincoln was a great man will have me to deal with! Any man who tells me that the Star-Spangled Banner has ever been furled in defeat will have me to deal with! Good morning, sir!"

SWIFT'S PRODUCE REVIEW

Imports of butter are increasing. The Steamship Oregon, sailing from Copenhagen March 10th, is reported to carry a cargo of over two and one quarter million pounds.
Danish butter is generally of fine quality and meets the demand of the most exacting trade.
Domestic production is increasing and markets are quieted lower.
Deliveries of poultry from farmers have been generally light, due, no doubt, to the increasing egg production, and prices continue on a firm basis. The demand is chiefly for live poultry for the approaching Jewish holidays.

Production of eggs is now proceeding on a much larger scale. Higher prices are ruling this week than last, due to Easter demand.
Dressed poultry market is quiet and the demand is chiefly for storage stocks.
